2017 DUMOL EDDIE'S PATCH SYRAH

JEB DUNNUCK

96 POINTS

I also loved the 2017 Syrah Eddie's Patch, which has more of a Côte Rôtie vibe in its spring flowers, black raspberries, and dried earth-like aromas and flavors. Coming from pure volcanic soils and brought up 40% new oak, it's medium to full-bodied, has lots of tannins, terrific fruit, and a seamless texture.

92 POINTS

A ripe, lightly spicy and a very well-mannered Syrah that, while full in body and built upon a fine tannic foundation, is at once very deep and wonderfully refined at the same time. While slightly supple in texture, it does not lack for grip, yet it is nonetheless so nicely crafted as to be fairly approachable now.
